

Tucker J. Hembree

Phone (US): (+1) 404-940-9882 Email: bladeofxp@gmail.com

Personal Statement

I am a charismatic, service-oriented person, who looks forward to challenging experiences. I am seeking a fast-paced work environment. My ambition is to meet new people, get first-hand knowledge of how business actually works and learn new skills.

Work Skills and Experience

Web Development Immersive Student (2020):

- 12-Week Immersive (~500 hours), including HTML, CSS, JS/JQuery, & Git
- Used Github to manage version control while developing within project specifications & deadlines
- Troubleshoot other students' code and help find bugs

Technical Skills (Summer 2017 and 2018):

- Cashier for Barnes & Noble bookstore, responsible for handling transactions and settling money

People and Communication Skills:

- Communicates effectively with an audience (written and verbal)
- Ability to relate to people of varying ages and backgrounds
- Can work independently or with a team

Customer Service Skills:

- Experience as an usher, dealing with customers and general issues, face to face
- Driven to make the customer a regular for the company
- Library intern, assisting students and teachers to find resources for papers

Technology Related Skills:

- Experience with various kinds of analytics and softwares
- Proficient using Microsoft Office Suite
- Able to assist others with general computer know-how and IT help

Literary Related Skills:

- Efficient at researching and solving problems
- Extremely detail-oriented and can learn quickly
- Proficient reading and writing Spanish and Latin; can read some Japanese and Gaelic
- Knowledge of sorting shelves and general upkeep of a library
- Good understanding of the Dewey Decimal System
- Editorial skills related to grammar and syntax

Extracurriculars

- Environmental Club (2013 - 2015)
- Habitat for Humanity volunteer
- Student teacher for rising 9th graders at Science and Engineering School Camp (2012 - 2015)
- Special Olympics volunteer
- Georgia Shakespeare Company volunteer

Education

- Saint Andrews University, Scotland (2015 - 2019)
- Graduated (Fall of 2019) with Honors in International Relations